

- Model biological oscillators:
Using two interacting species, an activator to boost boht production rates and a repressor to suppress production of the activator
- What is the qualitative of the level of detail in the model implementation and the implied time scales?

